Serving the Yale Community for 75 years, the Co-op is an important factor in cutting the high cost of a college education. Last year Co-op members received over $140,000 in patronage refunds on purchases. Avail yourself of these savings by joining the Co-op now.

A YALE BANNER PUBLICATION

We've Been Doing Business

With Yale Men

For More Than 100 Years . . .

We're proud of our record of taking care of the personal finances of hundreds of thousands of Yale men, generation after generation.

Today, in addition to the friendly service that has always been a Second National tradition, you'll find that our million-dollar remodeling program has resulted in a banking center that is as modern as tomorrow—still conveniently located "just across the Green."

To help you keep track of personal finances, Second National has thrifty Personalized Checking Accounts. Every check has your name imprinted.

You'll find every other banking service you need—including Savings Accounts earning 2½% yearly interest, paid four times a year—at our new Main Office, 135 Church Street, next to the downtown Post Office—just across the Green.

A YALE TRADITION

Yale has many traditions—some wise, and some not so wise. All have a way of hanging on and becoming part of that unknown concept: the Yale Community.

But one tradition has lasted by popular demand—the tradition of getting your haircut at Phil's. Back in 1927, Phil opened his first barber shop to serve Yale men, and since that date, most Yalies have gone to Phil time and time again for the important haircut before the big date, your vacation, or what have you.

Why has Phil appealed to Yale men so long and so consistently? Two words answer this question: SERVICE and FRIENDSHIP. With two locations (see map) and 16 barbers, Phil is prepared to give you the finest haircut where and when you want it. But while we concede that others also give haircuts, no one can match Phil's for friendly atmosphere, quality, and personal attention.

So on your way to and from (or in between) classes, on your way to the gym or the co-op, drop in Phil's and see what we mean. There is a difference between barber shops, and Phil for 33 years has shown Yalies that he has the key to being the best.

A YALE BANNER PUBLICATION

JAMES B. JALENAK, Chairman
CARL W. LINDQUIST, Editor-in-Chief
ALBERT RITCHIE, II, Publications Director

To the Class of 1964:

Yale is a place of ideas, old and new. Through your curricular work you will encounter the most important of these during your years at Yale. Simultaneously you will have the opportunity to supplement this experience by careful and considered participation in some of the many extra-curricular groups and activities that are also a part of Yale.

In the extra-curricular field an activity of any sort must answer at least one question in the affirmative before it can claim a place on the campus: "May it claim a legitimate place within an academic community?" Similarly the individual should answer two questions in the affirmative before giving serious consideration to his participation in any extra-curricular activity. "Am I contributing to my own overall educational objectives and plans through this means?" "Am I engaging in this activity for its own inherent value and pleasure, and not with any artificial goals, such as achieving prestige?"

Through a happy balance of both sides of college life—a balance that each individual must attain for himself—you will be able to further your intellectual and social development immensely while at Yale. But the most important objective of all should be the development of a keystone atop these two pillars, a keystone of character, of moral values, of a sense of rightness and wrongness. After college your social milieu will clearly change; your acquisition of knowledge will undoubtedly continue; but many of your values will remain fixed. Yale has always stressed the need for this final result of the balancing process, and will continue to do so. If all members of the Class of 1964 undertake their curricular and extra-curricular programs with this realization, then both they and Yale will prosper.

The Associated Student Agencies at Yale are operated by student Managers under the direct control of Yale University. To be eligible for the position of a Manager, a student must have a genuine need of money for his education and support and must keep a scholastic standing acceptable to the University. An Agency must provide a continuity of Managers by competition, at the Freshman, Sophomore, or Junior level, for eligible students to prove their fitness to become Managers. The number of Managers depends upon the size of the individual Agency. A large Agency might have a Sophomore, Junior and Senior Managers and a small Agency only a Senior Manager.

The governing body of the Associated Student Agencies is a Council made up of representatives from various branches of the University including the Council of (Residential College) Masters, the Treasurer's Office, the University's Service Bureau, Legal Council, Dean of Freshmen, Personnel Department, Comptroller of the University under Chairman Ralph C. Burr, Financial Aids Committee. This Council through a Supervisor, Mr. Murray Murdoch, appointed by the University, controls the administration and policy of the Associate Student Agencies. Any suggested enterprise must have the approval of the Council before it can be accepted as an Agency on the Yale Campus. The amount of remuneration a student Manager receives must also have the approval of the Council.

An Agency must deposit all money received with the Treasurer of Yale University and give a numbered receipt to the individual student from whom the money was received. These receipt books are strictly controlled and audited by the University Auditor. All purchases are made on Yale University or Associated Student Agencies Purchase Orders. All bills must be sent in duplicate to the Supervisor of the Associated Student Agencies and after his approval, are paid by Yale University.

All employees, salesmen, competitors and managers are paid through the Yale University Payroll Department. All student earnings are reported to the Scholarship Department. All taxes, etc., are reported and paid by Yale University. Each Agency must keep a set of records acceptable to the Supervisor and a University Auditor. A complete audit of the Associated Student Agencies book is made yearly and submitted to the Council. Money to operate the Associated Student Agencies and to pay the University for the services rendered the Agencies, is collected by assessment based on the gross business and surplus of each Agency.

The major Agencies were established in the 1920-30 period. Initial capital for these ventures was obtained by Mr. Crawford's personal solicitation among certain of his Yale classmates, which produced funds of nearly $5,000, loaned to the earlier Agencies and amortized long since out of their respective earnings. In 1923, the Associated Student Agencies were established, bringing all these operations under general supervision and (somewhat later) under a uniform managerial contract.

Every day the whole spectrum of human affairs gets a thorough, fascinating going-over in The Times. You don't have to major in government to enjoy its superb coverage of the Presidential sweepstakes.

- or in foreign affairs to follow the crucial efforts to maintain peace in the world
- or in business to find meaning in stock market trends, industrial developments, labor-management disputes
- or in science to satisfy your curiosity about man's efforts to explore outer space, advance medical knowledge, discover new ways to do things better
- or in the arts to keep abreast of what's new and different in literature, painting, the theatre, movies and television
- or in sports to thrill to the lively writing about all the sports there are . . . all year round

On or off campus, The New York Times stands out from the crowd. And you will, too, personally and scholastically, when you make this distinguished, wide-awake newspaper a daily reading habit at Yale.

Roger Kent

Even the Bulldog's a Roger Kent Man!

Why have so many Yale men shopped Roger Kent over the years? Simple. Here's where they find a clear expression of Eli taste at prices they can readily afford. Clothing with our perfected Natural Judge cut — the reputable true-shoulder model — flatters you in the accepted university manner. Equally important, we fit you perfectly and comfortably — for the active informal or formal campus life you lead.

Come visit Roger Kent soon and browse at your leisure. You'll be surprised how inexpensive dressing the authentic way can really be. And our complete charge privileges are most convenient.

Going Places

Dear Member of 1964:

The YALE BANNER PUBLICATIONS wishes to take this opportunity to welcome you to Yale. We are sure that you will find your experiences here in New Haven rewarding and enjoyable.

The book you now hold in your hand is but one of the BANNER's many publications. The OLD CAMPUS's sister publications include the BANNER, the nation's oldest college yearbook. This will truly be a "banner" year for Yale, for this year we introduce the entirely new Yale BANNER. But as always, this book will contain a section devoted solely to freshman activities. You may subscribe to this fine book when you have your official photo taken. It will be something you will keep and read for many years to come.

In about a month, the Banner will publish the Yale TELEPHONE DIRECTORY. It will contain the addresses and phone numbers of the entire Yale student body, as well as those of the Yale faculty offices and the nearby girls' schools. And speaking of girls—you will want to get your copy of GOING PLACES—a Guide to Eastern Women's Colleges. This humorous book will take you on many enjoyable social adventures through the East.

For those of you who are interested in working on publications at Yale, the Banner sponsors ON THE FENCE WITH '64, the freshman newspaper. This paper provides the members of your class who work on it a worthwhile publishing experience to tide them over in anticipation of second semester healing. Watch for notices on your counselor's bulletin board.

If there is any way we can help you during freshman week or your stay at Yale, please come by our offices in Hendrie Hall. We will be glad to do what we can.

We wish you four big years at Yale.

Yours very truly,

Will 1000 Days
Be Enough?

Think about it. Between now and your degree you have a thousand days at Yale. Enough? Not nearly. How can you possibly gain the extra time to do all you must and hope to do? Here's how: conserve your news-reading time. Do it with a world-scope news-in-depth paper that actually gives you more about everything in less time. . . . And it's so much more fun to read the Trib. Try it. Convince yourself. Next: use this postcard. TODAY!
